Embracing the Splendour of Summer: A season to cherish

As the sun painted the sky in shades of warmth, signalling the arrival of my much-awaited summer vacation, I found myself standing at the threshold of a truly extraordinary escapade. Armed with an insatiable curiosity and a heart yearning for connections, my summer of 2023 unfolded like a tale of enchantment, seamlessly weaving threads of spirituality, cherished family bonds, and the allure of literature.

A devoted lover of books, my previous summers were synonymous with the joys of immersing myself in the pages of countless novels. However, this year was destined to be different; it beckoned me to embark on a transformative journey, one that would intricately knit together the fabric of my faith with the embrace of cherished familial ties.

As the tranquil month of Ramadan extended its gentle embrace, I readily surrendered to its enchantment. The early hours of dawn witnessed me engrossed in the profound verses of the Quran, each word was a luminous gem guiding me through the intricate maze of existence. The daylight hours of fasting became an oasis of introspection, where I found solace and an unbreakable connection with my spiritual core. As the sun dipped below the horizon, the nights came alive with fervent prayers, cocooning me in a tapestry of tranquillity.

However, my summer sojourn was destined to traverse beyond the realms of spiritual contemplation. The promise of a cousin's wedding pulled me towards the embrace of my ancestral village, a sanctuary of rustic charm and timeless traditions. Amidst the lush green fields and the symphony of crickets, the wedding festivities unfurled like the vibrant chapters of an age-old saga. The village's warmth seeped into every fibre of my being, gifting me invaluable lessons that no conventional classroom could ever impart.

Immersed in the loving hospitality of my kin, I discovered the art of crafting traditional culinary delights. With spices as my companions and culinary traditions as my guide, I embarked on a culinary journey that mirrored the symphony of flavours. In the company of kindred souls, our conversations over cups of tea transcended the virtual realm, forming a genuine connection that defied the digital age. Amidst laughter and shared stories, the ancient wisdom of the village flowed through our interactions, enriching my perspective in ways I could have never fathomed.

And oh, how my cherished books continued to accompany me on this journey! Beneath the shade of ancient trees, their pages whispered tales of exploration, igniting my imagination with a thirst for wanderlust. These literary companions seamlessly intertwined with the timeless wisdom imparted by the village elders, forging an exquisite symphony of insights that resonated deeply within my heart.

My 2023 summer was an unconventional masterpiece, painting a portrait of faith, family, and fervour. In the dance of words and prayers, amidst the embraces of loved ones and the symphony of nature, I reached the culmination of this chapter with a heart overflowing with gratitude. The indelible ink of these experiences, etched onto the canvas of my soul, shall forever remain unblurred.

As I step beyond the threshold of this transformative summer, I carry with me the essence of awakening, the treasures of enrichment, and a harmonious resonance with the ever-unfolding symphony of life.

Embracing the Joyous Symphony of Summer Vacation

Ah, the enchanting season of summer vacation has finally graced us with its warmth and splendour. As the school bell rings its final chime and workplace desks are briefly abandoned, a world of limitless possibilities opens up. Summer vacation continues to enchant us year after year, enticing us to go on hikes that will leave us with lifelong memories.

A vast array of components naturally merge in this harmony of leisure, creating an arrangement of experiences that inspire, rejuvenate, and revitalise. Summer vacation provides a blank canvas for people to paint their dreams on, from the shimmering shores of calming beaches to the bustling streets of fascinating cities. It's time to leave the ordinary behind and embrace the remarkable.

Families reunite, friendships expand, and relationships are restored as the sun bathes everything in its golden warmth. The thrill of watching youngsters construct sandcastles on the beach or share laughs around a bonfire beneath starlit skies is unrivalled. These moments remind us of the essence of life and the value of relationships.

Helen Keller said, "Life is either a daring adventure or nothing at all." Summer vacation reflects this spirit, encouraging us to venture outside our comfort zones and explore the unknown. Whether overcoming a fear of heights by zip-lining through lush canopies or immersing ourselves in the diverse cultures of distant locations, each encounter profoundly enriches our lives.

But don't underestimate the rejuvenating impact of doing nothing at all. A calm afternoon spent reading a book with a nice breeze stroking our skin can be just as fulfilling. Summer vacation allows us to find peace in the simple joys that sometimes escape us in our hectic schedules.

Briefly, a summer holiday is a balanced blend of discovery, relaxation, and connection. It's a time to tell stories worth telling, to discover hidden aspects of the world and ourselves, and to be reminded of the pure joy of being alive. So, as the sun-kissed days unfold before us, allow yourself to accept this gift with open hearts and minds, for within its embrace is a treasure.

POEMS

Summer - a Vacation

Summer, a vacation of fun,
Fun, a chance to meet with our cousins,
grandparents and everyone far from us,
Us, exploring all the places together we've never explored before,
Before, the summer ends,
Enjoying each and every bright and sunny days,
Days, we're all going to remember,
Remember, we had all the fun and enjoyment in the vacation of summer,
Summer, a vacation of excitement,
Excitement, we all need in our life,
Life, is full of remarkable memories,
Memories, we're all going to make in the summer,
Summer, a vacation we all love,
Summer, a vacation of relaxation,
Summer, a vacation of relief,
Summer, a vacation we all need.

इजहार...

हमारी सुबह उनके दीदार से शुरू और उनकी ख्वाबों से खत्म होती है...
उनकी हर एक याद हमारे सिरहाने सोती है..
उनके इत्र की वो भीनी-भीनी सी खुशबू हमारे इर्तगिर्त घूमती है...

हर एक अदा उनकी जिन पे हम हमारा दिल हारे हैं..
वो अंजान है हमारी दीवानगी से,
हम उनपर जान निसार कर बैठे हैं..
कैसे जताये दिल का आलम,
हम उनसे प्यार कर बैठे हैं..

हमें प्यार है उनसे या उनके हर एक कतरे से?..
इजहार करे तो कैसे करें हम हमारी चाहत का,
डर सा लगता है उनके इनकार से..
हम चुप चुप के उनको खिड़कियों से निहारते हैं,
हर दफा उनको हम खुदा से मांगते हैं..
उनकी वो मासूम सी आँखे माशाअल्लाह
हम उनमें डूबे से रहते हैं..
कैसे जताये दिल का आलम,
हम उनसे मोहब्बत कर बैठे हैं..

शेहद सी उनकी मुस्कान पर हम जिंदगी की सारी खुशियां लुटा बैठे हैं,
हर वक्त उनसे मुलाकात करने के बहाने ढूंढते हैं..
किताबों को पढ़ने के बजाए हम बस उनको ही देखा करते हैं..
अब हमारे दोस्त, हमें उनके नाम से छेड़ने लगे हैं,
उनके नाम का जिक्र होते ही ना जाने क्यों हम शर्मने लगे है..
कैसे जताये दिल का आलम,
हम उनसे बेइंतहा मोहब्बत कर बैठे हैं..

जिंदगी के सफर में हमने उन्हें अपना हमसफर माना है..
कैसे करे हाल-ए-दिल बया, वो हमारे सामने आते हैं, हम सब कुछ भूल जाते हैं..
क्या बात है? पूछने पर..हम कुछ नहीं कहकर..बात को टालकर वहांसे चले आते हैं..
कैसे जताये दिल का आलम,
हम उनसे इश्क कर बैठे हैं..
कैसे जताये दिल का आलम,
हम उनसे इश्क कर बैठे हैं.....!!

Unveiling the Untouched Magic of Summer Vacation

Beneath the sun's caressing kiss,
A season of adventure and pure bliss,
Summer vacation, a canvas anew,
Unveiling dreams both bright and true.

Whispers of waves and golden sand,
Beckon to explore a far-off land,
In unknown realms, we find our way,
Where the sun's dance extends the day.

From mountain tops to forests green,
Nature's wonders, a sight unseen,
With each step, a story unfolds,
In summer's embrace,
our heart beholds.

One Earth, One Chance: A Heartfelt Plea for a Sustainable Tomorrow

In the vast expanse of the universe, our home, Earth, shines as a tiny, exquisite jewel, cradling the magic of life within its diverse landscapes. Yet, as we marvel at its beauty, we're confronted with an undeniable truth: our precious planet is at a crossroads, facing challenges that demand our immediate attention.

"One Earth, One Chance" — these words echo with urgency, carrying the weight of a plea for action. They are a call to our hearts, a reminder that the choices we make today will echo through time, shaping the fate of generations yet unborn.

Climate change, deforestation, pollution — these are not abstract issues but stark realities. The consequences of our actions reverberate in the erratic weather patterns, the silent disappearance of species, and the relentless rise of sea levels. Mother Earth is signaling distress, and we cannot ignore her cries.

The journey toward a sustainable future begins with acknowledging our individual and collective responsibility. Every decision we make, every product we choose, and every resource we consume influences the health of our planet. It's about embracing choices that lighten our ecological footprint, for the sake of the Earth we call home.

Sustainability isn't about sacrifice; it's about envisioning a future where prosperity walks hand in hand with environmental guardianship. From harnessing the power of renewable energy to embracing eco-friendly innovations, the possibilities are vast. It's a matter of championing policies that prioritize conservation, holding corporations accountable for their impact, and fostering a global spirit of inter-connectedness.

Education becomes our guiding light. Understanding the delicate dance of ecosystems empowers us to be advocates for change. Sustainability isn't just a concept; it's a living, breathing ethos that respects the intricate balance of nature.

As custodians of this planet, we hold the pen that writes the story of Earth's future. "One Earth, One Chance" is a poignant call for unity in adversity. Let's be the generation that tips the scales toward a harmonious coexistence with nature. Our actions today will determine whether the wonders we cherish endure for the countless tomorrows. The journey to a sustainable future starts with us, now, fueled by a collective passion for our irreplaceable home.

QUESTION YOURSELF

Mother Earth, have we ever thought why do we address earth as mother?

I don't know what others think about this question, because everyone doesn't need to think in the same, but what I feel is Mother is the only person on this earth who knows all the answers to my questions, she fulfills my all necessary demands, she is the kind person who will clap on my success and will slap on my mistakes. Her presence is the most valuable blessing of my life. The same goes for Earth, the existence of our planet is itself a blessing, having a beautiful nature around and also the supply of all the necessary items is only present on Earth.

The next question that pops into my mind is, are taking care of Mother Earth?

And the answer to the question is quite simple, NO !, yes and there's no doubt about that, because in this so-called era of development, under the name of development we are destroying our earth, we are cutting trees in large amounts, increasing pollution day-by-day, global warming, severe climatic changes, various types of unknown infections and diseases are uncovered.

Furthermore being the evolved animal or as we say man with intelligence, there's no use of this intelligence, if we can't protect the beautiful creation, which is responsible for fulfilling our demands whether they are a necessity or greed. Many questions are still unanswered because at some point we know that we are the reason for that problem. if we want the answers, then we need to question ourselves, our behavior, our necessity, our greed, and our development. The ultimate truth is that We have one beautiful earth and there are only a few chances left to protect it. Now again the ball is in our court.

After reaching the shore.
I love the sea.
After the hair greys.
I understand the world.
Yesterday's joys came together...
Today, at this moment, they find meaning.
Today's joys will come together...
To find their meaning tomorrow.
To live my life that I never lived...
Unable to bear this, upwards I go ...
To Kindle my never-ending passion
Here and now, I am coming out of it.
Here and now, immerses into the depths.
I look at myself as someone else.
Not with any reason, just naturally with clarity, like that of the sun's rays.
I don't belong to these depths, but I dwell in them.
As a mirror, I am born,
I become everything I see...
The joy of a kitten caressing my feet.
Is life enough for me?
I want to stroke everything I come across, beautifully!
I will always be myself.

Every day I will live to the fullest, will object, a life of conveniences.

I will live a life of supreme essence!

I will become as pure as possible...

With the wind flies the hawk

Beautifully, without a path.

It is reality.

Like the rock that goes to the depth of the water

With a renouncing of sound ...

I drown in the sights I see...

Like the bird that rides on the bull's hump...

I will live upon the earth.

I would join hands, and walk along with the earth.

Some kind of ecstasy is flowing...

That provides depth!!

These moments envelop me like a mother. Aaro- aari-rari-ro

After reaching the shore...

I love the sea.

After the hair greys,

I understand the world,

Yesterday's joys came together.

Today, at this moment, they find meaning.

Today's joys will come together.

To find their meaning tomorrow.

नारी!

एक नारी सब पे भारी
ऐसे ही नहीं कहती यह दुनिया सारी,
सर्वगुण सम्पन्न यह पहचान है तेरी,
देवी का स्वरूप, शक्तियों का सार है तू नारी।
खुशी की लहर, साहस का सागर हैं तू
संसार का सबसे महत्वपूर्ण हिस्सा हैं तू।
तू हल है हर मुक्तिल की,
तू कल है इस दुननया का,
तुझसे है यह जगत,
तुझ बीन सब अधूरा सा।
लोग क्या कहेंगे... इससे अपने परो को मत काट,
खुद के सपन का गला मत घोट,
पींजरे में खुद की ख्वाइशो को कैद मत कर,
साहस के सागर को बंजर मत कर।
अपने आसमान में हक से अपने परो को फैला,
ख्वाइश के इस पींजरे को इस गोल धरती की सैर करा,
कर दे आज वह हर चीज मुम्किन जिस में दुनिया ने तुझे रोका,
नारी क्या ह ती है आज इस संसार के हर मनुष्य क समझा।

Title: Chetna Sinha: Empowering Rural Women Through Financial Inclusion

‘Empowering women isn't just about giving them resources; it's about giving them the tools and opportunities to shape their own destinies.’

In the rural heartland of Maharashtra, Chetna Sinha is pioneering a movement to empower women through financial inclusion. Born and raised in a small village, Chetna Sinha experienced firsthand the economic challenges faced by rural women. Determined to make a difference, she founded the Mann Deshi Foundation, a grassroots organization dedicated to supporting women entrepreneurs and farmers.

One of Mann Deshi's flagship initiatives is the creation of women's cooperatives, where rural women come together to access financial services, receive business training, and share knowledge and resources. Through these cooperatives, women are breaking free from the cycle of poverty, starting their own businesses, and becoming financially independent. Chetna Sinha also established the Mann Deshi Bank, India's first bank for and by rural women. The bank provides loans, savings accounts, and insurance products tailored to the needs of women, empowering them to invest in their businesses, educate their children, and secure their futures.

Under Chetna Sinha's leadership, thousands of women have transformed their lives and communities. They are running successful businesses, sending their children to school, and challenging traditional gender roles. Chetna Sinha's vision of economic empowerment is not only lifting women out of poverty but also driving social change and creating a more equitable society.

Through her tireless advocacy and innovative approach, Chetna Sinha is proving that when women are given the tools and opportunities to succeed, they can become powerful agents of change. Her work is not only transforming the lives of rural women in India but also inspiring similar initiatives around the world.
