

Digital Library

 The logo for the National Digital Library of India features a circular emblem. Inside the circle, there is a stylized green tree or plant growing from a stack of three horizontal wavy lines representing water. The words "National Digital Library of India" are written in a circular path around the top and bottom of the tree.	 The logo for the World Digital Library is set against a dark blue background. It features a white silhouette of a person sitting at a desk, looking up at a globe that is suspended by a string from above. Below the globe, the word "WORLD" is written in large, bold, white capital letters, with "DIGITAL LIBRARY" in smaller letters underneath.
 The logo for the HATHI TRUST DIGITAL LIBRARY consists of two vertical sections. The left section is orange and contains a white stylized icon of an open book or a series of steps. The right section is white with the text "HATHI TRUST DIGITAL LIBRARY" in a serif font, with "HATHI" on the first line, "TRUST" on the second, and "DIGITAL LIBRARY" on the third.	 The logo for Open Library features a white sign with a blue arrow pointing upwards. The word "OPEN" is written in white on the arrow. To the right of the arrow, the word "LIBRARY" is written in a large, black, serif font. The entire logo is enclosed in a white rounded rectangle.
 The logo for Project Gutenberg is a white rounded rectangle. The word "Project" is written in a gold-colored, cursive, serif font. The word "Gutenberg" is written in a larger, gold-colored, serif font. In the background, there is a faint illustration of a classical building, possibly a library or a temple, with columns and a pediment.	 The logo for Internet Archive is a black square. On the left side, the word "INTERNET" is written vertically in white capital letters. On the right side, the word "ARCHIVE" is written vertically in white capital letters. In the center of the square is a white illustration of a classical building with four columns and a triangular pediment.